

RECEPTION, PRESENTATION & BOOK SIGNING BY JONATHAN EIG
AUTHOR, JOURNALIST, LECTURER

Jonathan Eig has taught writing at Columbia College Chicago and lectures at Northwestern University. He has written as a freelancer for dozens of outlets, including The New York Times, Washington Post, and online edition of The New Yorker. His latest book, Ali: A Life, is a New York Times bestselling biography of Muhammad Ali. Eig's first book, Luckiest Man: The Life and Death of Lou Gehrig (2005), reached No.10 on the New York Times best-seller list and won the Casey Award for best baseball book of the year. For his third book, Get Capone, Eig discovered thousands of pages of never-before-reported government documents on the government's case against Capone. The New York Times review called the book "a gore-spattered thriller." The Birth of the Pill (2014), Eig's fourth book, told the story of the renegades who invented the first oral contraceptive. The Washington Post called it "essential reading." Eig lives in Chicago with his wife and three children, but his hometown is Monsey, N.Y.
